

İpek İnce is an associate at Allen & Overy in their arbitration and litigation department. After participating in the 25th Vis Moot she joined the MAA in 2018 and has been part of the MAA Core Team ever since. She is currently serving as the Co-President. İpek is also part of Young Istanbul Arbitration Centre board, the founder of Istanbul Very Young Arbitration Practitioners, co-organizer of ArbinBrief, and acts as the Turkey representative for the Campaign for Greener Arbitrations.

Navin G. Ahuja is the author of the book “Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration: Levelling the Playing Field” and is currently serving as the Co-President of the MAA. Navin earned his doctorate focusing on guerrilla tactics in international commercial arbitration. Until 2024 he was in practice development, supporting an international law firm’s international arbitration practice. Navin is appointed to the Presidential Panel of Arbitrators of the AIADR, an accredited tribunal secretary, an accredited general mediator and a mediation tutor. Navin is an editorial board member of the International Arbitration Law Review. He has delivered several guest lectures and has contributed to several publications on the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG) and international arbitration. Navin has coached teams for the Vis Moot and has had incredible success.

Evanthia Kasiora is an Associate in the International Arbitration practice of White & Case in Paris. She is qualified in Greece and registered with the Paris Bar as an EU lawyer. She holds LLM degrees from the London School of Economics and the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. Evanthia participated in the Vis Moot in 2018 and has since been actively involved as a coach and arbitrator. She is currently serving as the Vice President of the MAA Executive Board and was previously the Co-Chair of the MAA Mentor-Mentee Programme.

Anne Wang is an Australian qualified lawyer and is studying the Bachelor of Civil Law at the University of Oxford in 2023-24. She worked as a Deputy Counsel at the Secretariat of the ICC International Court of Arbitration in Hong Kong. She has also practised as a solicitor in Sydney and has acted as tribunal secretary in international commercial and investor-state arbitrations. Anne is a graduate of the University of New South Wales. While undertaking an LLB exchange at Stockholm University, she participated in the 27th Vis Moot. Prior to joining the MAA Executive Board, Anne was Co-Chair of the Mentor-Mentee Team.

Dr. Christian Johannes Wahnschaffe is a law clerk at the Higher Regional Court of Hamburg, Germany. His clerkship includes secondments at Hanefeld and the Permanent Court of Arbitration. After graduating in 2018, he served as Director of the Karina und Erich Schumann Centre for Advanced International Legal Studies at the University of Münster, Germany. In 2023, he obtained his doctorate in law with a thesis on institutional arbitration at the University of Münster, Germany. His published research focuses on international sales law and contract law as well as commercial and investment arbitration. He acts as Editorial Reviewer for the Vindobona Journal of International Commercial Law and Arbitration and has served the Moot Alumni Association as Compliance Officer and Regional Representative in recent years.

Peter Riznik is an arbitrator in independent practice based in Vienna, Austria, with a particular focus on the Central and Central-Eastern European markets. He has a wide range of experience serving as counsel, arbitrator and tribunal secretary in commercial and investment arbitrations in the region and beyond. He has worked on cases conducted under the rules of the ICC, LCIA, VIAC, SCC, Ljubljana Arbitration Centre, Finnish Arbitration Institute and in ad-hoc arbitrations under UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

In the past, Peter was active in private practice, as a full-time tribunal secretary, in an arbitral institution as well as in UN-organizations, including on international commercial law and the law of outer space. He is one of the founders and a board member of ArbCEE, the Arbitration Association of Central and Eastern Europe. He is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and its taskforce on combating corruption. He is also active in academia and serves as a habilitated lecturer at the University of Maribor in his home country Slovenia. Peter also sits on the European Regional Committee of the Campaign for Greener Arbitrations.

Peter is also a former mootie and long-standing arbitrator and a friend of the moot. In the past, he served as a co-director of the Young ICCA Mentoring Programme where he has gathered invaluable experience in working with and mentoring young colleagues.