WELCOME ADDRESS

Ms. SHERLIN TUNG

Partner, Withersworldwide
Director, CEO, Vis East Moot Foundation

Sherlin Tung is a partner in the international arbitration and litigation team at Withers, based in Hong Kong, where she specializes in cross-border corporate and commercial disputes, international commercial arbitration, and multi-jurisdictional litigations.

Sherlin has a unique and diverse professional career in international transactions and cross-border disputes. From starting her career in international arbitration by training under the direct supervision of a leading international arbitrator and acting as his tribunal secretary in multiple complex international arbitration matters, to working with the leading arbitral institution, the ICC Court of Arbitration (first in Hong Kong and then setting up the case management team office in New York) where she managed hundreds of international arbitrations, to working in-house for an international conglomerate where she handled all international disputes, before going to private practice and sitting as an arbitrator on complex commercial arbitrations, Sherlin has experienced every possible legal role in an international dispute.

Sherlin is listed on various arbitral institution panels, sits on various international arbitration committees, and is very active in the international arbitration community. She also regularly speaks, presents, and gives lectures on international arbitration and trade law. Sherlin is currently the Director, CEO of the Vis East Moot Foundation, which operates the Vis East Moot Competition, and a past President of the Moot Alumni Association.
