

Curricula vitae for the upcoming election of the Executive Board of the Moot Alumni Association for the 2026/2027 term (submitted by 21 March 2026)

Prof. Dr. Navin G Ahuja

Prof. Dr. Navin G. Ahuja brings nearly two decades of extensive experience in the international sale of goods and manufacturing to his current role as a mediator and arbitrator at Mediation Chambers. He holds a law degree, a Master's specializing in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), and a Doctorate focused on International Dispute Resolution.

As an accomplished author, Navin wrote "Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration: Levelling the Playing Field", which has received acclaim from leading academics and practitioners in the field. He actively contributes to the discourse in alternative dispute resolution as a member of the editorial board for the International Arbitration Law Review and through numerous guest lectures and publications on mooting, ADR, and the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG).

Moreover, he has successfully guided aspiring mediators – including lawyers, law students, and professionals from diverse fields – through the accreditation process.

Navin's commitment to excellence is further demonstrated by his role as a judge in various ADR moots and his success in coaching teams to achieve outstanding results.

Dr. Christian Johannes Wahnschaffe

Dr Christian Johannes Wahnschaffe works with HANEFELD, an international dispute resolution boutique law firm with offices in Hamburg and Paris. Admitted to the German Bar, he acts as counsel in a variety of arbitration and litigation matters and as a tribunal secretary.

Prior to joining HANEFELD, Johannes obtained a doctorate in law in the field of institutional arbitration and served as Director of the Karina and Erich Schumann Center for Advanced International Legal Studies at the University of Münster, where he also lectures on International Dispute Resolution. His published research focuses on investment and commercial arbitration, as well as international sales and contract law.

Johannes is an alumnus of the University of Münster and The Hague Academy of International Law and completed his legal clerkship with stages, inter alia, at the Permanent Court of Arbitration.

He has served as Vice President of the Moot Alumni Association for two terms and has coached several teams for the Willem C. Vis Moot over the past years.

Fernanda Nemr

Fernanda Nemr is a Senior Associate in the Litigation and Arbitration practice of Muriel Advogados in São Paulo. She holds a bachelor's degree from the University of São Paulo and is specialized in Energy Law by the Brazilian Institute of Energy Law. She was a Visiting Foreign Lawyer at the International Arbitration practice at WilmerHale in London.

Fernanda participated in the Vis Moot in 2019 and 2020 and was actively involved as a coach until 2023. She also participated in other domestic and international moot court competitions and is one of the co-founders of the Brazilian Arbitration and Technology Moot (CoDiTech Moot), as well as a member of the organization committee of the Brazilian Arbitration Moot. Fernanda was Chair of Events (Vienna) for the MAA from 2023 to 2025 and was previously a Regional Representative and joined the Executive Board for the 2025/2026 term.

Haowen (Daisy) Chen

Haowen (Daisy) Chen is a senior associate at Global Law Office in Shanghai, specializing in international arbitration and cross-border commercial disputes. She has experience in arbitrations administered by HKIAC, SIAC, CIETAC and other well known institutions, and regularly works in multilingual and multi-jurisdictional settings.

Daisy has been actively involved in the Moot Alumni Association for over three years as a member of the China Project Team and currently serves as its Vice Chair. In this role, she has organized and contributed to numerous arbitration-related events across China, working closely with arbitration institutions and practitioners to promote engagement within the international arbitration community.

She is also a China Ambassador of the Vienna International Arbitral Centre and has participated in and supported a wide range of initiatives connecting arbitration communities across jurisdictions. Daisy previously participated in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot and continues to engage with the moot as an arbitrator.

Misra Yalçın

Misra Yalçın is an Associate in the International Arbitration practice at Tahan | Cem Attorney Partnership. She is admitted to the Istanbul Bar and holds an LL.M. in International Commercial Arbitration Law (ICAL) from Stockholm University. Her previous experience includes visiting roles at the SCC Arbitration Institute and the Istanbul Arbitration Centre. Misra participated in the Vis Moot in 2021 and has since been an active member of the Moot Alumni Association Core Team. She currently serves as Co-Chair of the Vienna Conference.
